- 2.2. A contract with the Buyer is concluded by the Seller issuing an order acknowledgement (confirmation) or a pro forma invoice to the Buyer.
- 2.3. The Buyer may neither withdraw nor amend an order which has been confirmed by the Seller unless the Seller has given its prior consent in writing as a hard copy or via e-mail.

In the event of any quantitative shortfall or damage to the goods, the Buyer is obliged to issue a complaint report immediately, with the participation of the carrier, and then to report the complaint to the Seller without any delay. If, upon receipt, the condition of the goods gives no cause for reservation, but damage is found during unpacking, further unpacking shall be halted and the Seller shall be informed without delay or no later than seven days from the delivery date. After this period, the goods shall be considered to have been accepted without any reservations.
- 4.10. Should the Buyer fail to collect the goods ordered within seven days of the confirmed delivery date, then the Seller may charge the Buyer for storage costs at the rate of 1% of the net value of the order for each day of delay.
